

LOBBY SEEKERS SPEND BUSY DAY

Subpoena Chairman of Board of Directors of Union Pacific Railroad

WANT STORY EXPLAINED

Must Explain Statement That
Lobbyists Sought to Secure Employment from U. P.

MANY LETTERS MADE PUBLIC

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The senate's lobby investigation reached out into new fields to day when the senate, acting on a resolution presented by Senator Norris ordered the Overman committee to subpoena Judge Roberts Lovett, chairman of the board of directors of the Union Pacific railroad to explain a published statement credited to him yesterday in New York that lobbyists had sought to secure employment from the Union Pacific on the ground that they would be able to influence a settlement of the Union-Pacific-Southern Pacific dissolution case in Washington.

Earlier in the day the committee had made public over the protests of a lawyer representing Henry T. Oxnard and Truman G. Palmer a series of letters written by the two beet sugar representatives showing a long continued effort to influence legislation in Washington; to control congressional committees; and to direct national political affairs in support of the continuance of a protective sugar tariff.

Summons Sent Warren.
Chairman Overman had not determined tonight when the railroad phase of the investigation will be opened. A summons was sent to day to Charles B. Warren of Detroit, president of the Michigan Sugar company and one of the men to whom many of the Hamilton letters, produced yesterday were addressed. Mr. Warren was asked to appear before the committee tomorrow and it is expected that he will be asked for more details of the beet sugar publicity campaign.

Late in the afternoon the committee abandoned temporarily the sugar protection lobby and took up the free sugar side, calling Frank C. Lowrey of New York, who directed much of the free sugar publicity under the association name of the "committee of wholesale grocers." Mr. Lowrey admitted he was employed by the Federal Sugar Refining company and under questions by Senator Cummins agreed that free sugar would benefit the can sugar refiners. The Oxnard-Palmer letters produced at the close of the committee's morning session were the chief feature of an exciting day. They covered a period from 1906 when Philippine free trade came up through the balance of the Roosevelt administration, the political campaign of 1908 and into the Taft administration. Most of the Oxnard letters were written in long hand and signed "Henry T. Oxnard" some of the Palmer letters were typewritten carbon copies, but were identified by Harry A. Austin, clerk in Mr. Palmer's office.

Attorney Protests in Vain.
Assurances that certain senators would be on the Philippine committee; that no stone was being left unturned to get real "protectionists" on the house ways and means committee and that strong pressure could be and was being brought to bear upon members of both houses to accomplish various ends, appeared frequently in the series of letters. Chairman Overman's first effort to read one of the Oxnard letters, when the committee began its sessions, brought a protest from John T. Yerkes, an attorney representing Oxnard and Palmer. He declared the committee had no right to go into "private correspondence" before the present session of congress.

In a long debate the executive committee decided that the letters bore directly upon the attempts of Oxnard and Palmer to influence legislation; and that they were at once made public. The committee tonight granted the request of Melville E. Stone of New York, general manager of The Associated Press, who asked to be allowed to testify tomorrow regarding the letters made in some of the Hamilton letters, produced yesterday as to the publicity of the beet sugar interests, hope to secure through The Associated Press.

FINDS SPRINGFIELD CLUB $150 UNDER SALARY LIMIT

Danville, Ill., June 18.—J. M. Doyle, manager of the Danville Three Eye league baseball club and salary inspector of the league, today investigated charges preferred by managers of various clubs, that the Springfield club exceeded the salary limit. After taking a statement of every player on the Springfield team, Inspector Doyle found that Manager Donnelly's club was $150 under the salary limit. This was the first investigation of the kind since the office of inspector was created by President Taft last spring. It is stated that the Decatur club's finances will be investigated next.

HENWOOD GUILTY OF FIRST DEGREE MURDER

JURY IN SECOND TRIAL PRESCRIBES DEATH PENALTY

First Trial Resulted in Verdict of Murder in Second Degree and Life Sentence.—In Both Trials Henwood Admitted the Killing and Pleaded Self Defense.

DENVER, Colo., June 18.—The jury in the second trial of Harold Henwood for the killing of George E. Copeland returned a verdict of first degree murder late this afternoon and prescribed the death penalty. Harold F. Henwood shot George E. Copeland, Sylvester L. VonPhul of St. Louis and James W. Atkinson in the bar room of a local hotel on the night of May 21, 1911. Copeland and Atkinson were bystanders and were hit by stray bullets. Copeland and VonPhul died. In the first trial Henwood was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to imprisonment for life. The Colorado supreme court on February 13, 1913, reversed the decision and remanded the case for a new trial. Following this decision of the supreme court attorneys for Henwood secured the dismissal of the information charging the murder of VonPhul, on the ground that the case had not been brought to trial within the time limit fixed by law. An attempt to have the Copeland case dismissed on a plea of former jeopardy failed.

In both trials, Henwood took the stand as the principal witness for the defense. He admitted the killing and pleaded self defense. Henwood testified that his quarrel with VonPhul resulted from an attempt he made to secure letters which had been written to VonPhul society woman and wife of a wealthy banker and stock raiser. Mrs. Springer was divorced by her husband after the shooting. In the second trial just closed, Springer took the stand in behalf of Henwood.

SULLENS' ALLEGED CONFESSION INTRODUCED IN EVIDENCE

Frank Sullens Now on Trial With Ernest Harrison for the Abduction of Dorothy Holt.

Salem, Ill., June 18.—The alleged confession of Frank Sullens, on trial jointly with Ernest Harrison for the abduction of Dorothy Holt, was introduced in evidence here today. Testimony was given to prove the authenticity of the confession. The alleged confession follows:

Friday, March 14, 1913.—I, Frank Sullens make the following statement as my free and voluntary act to wit: That Ernest Harrison, commonly called Deacon, gave me $5 in the rear of the Dr. Green building, across the street from the city hall on March 12th, at about 7 p. m. and it was agreed between us in consideration of the $5 paid to me that I was to kidnap Dorothy Holt and take her to or near the coal mine and turn her over to him and he was to hold her for ransom or reward. "Before entering into this contract, Harrison gave me several drinks of whiskey. Under this contract I caught her and took her to the coal mine, but Harrison did not show up."

The abduction of Dorothy Holt last March and an alleged attack on her, resulted in a mob demonstration. An angry crowd surrounded the county jail intent on lynching Sullens. State troops were called out to preserve order.

PRESIDENT WHITE CONFERS WITH ATTORNEY GENERAL McREYNOLDS

Recently Indicted Labor Official Sees
Attorney Regarding Indictments

Washington, June 18.—John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers, recently indicted at Charleston, W. Va., with seventeen other labor officials for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, conferred with Attorney General McReynolds today regarding the indictments which were brought without the attorney general's knowledge or direction.

White, who was accompanied by James DeWitt, his counsel, said he also took up with the attorney general "another matter" connected with the West Virginia situation but declined to divulge its nature. At the conclusion of the conference Messrs. White and DeWitt left for Indianapolis.

Attorney General McReynolds has received the explanation of United States Attorney Harold A. Ritz, of West Virginia, as to why he instituted the proceedings without consulting the department of justice, but declined to discuss it as he had not yet given it consideration.

WAS RUINED FINANCIALLY.
Surle, Switzerland, June 18.—The mystery surrounding the suicide last Thursday of Eugene Maggi, reputed one of the wealthiest men in Switzerland, and his wife has cleared up by the discovery among Maggi's papers of a letter to his family saying that he had been ruined financially and had decided to kill himself.

Below was a note from his wife, in which she said she felt it was her duty to follow her husband.

ILLINOIS SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

DECISION OF SANGAMON COUNTY
CIRCUIT COURT REVERSED

Holds That Absorption of Real Estate Title and Trust Co. and Increase in Capital By Chicago Title and Trust Co. Constitute Formation of New Corporation.

Springfield, Ill., June 18.—In decisions handed down today the Illinois supreme court holds that the extension of the charter of a railroad corporation does not subject the corporation to payment of the original incorporation fee but in the case of the Chicago Title and Trust company vs. C. J. Doyle secretary of state the court holds that the absorption of the Real Estate Title and Trust company and an increase in capital by the Chicago Title and Trust company constituted the formation of a new corporation and reverses the decision of the Sangamon county circuit court which ordered the state to return to the plaintiff a $5,000 fee paid under protest.

The first decision was made in the case of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad company vs. C. J. Doyle, secretary of state, and was appealed from the Sangamon county circuit court which held that the state could not legally demand the original incorporation fee of $110,885.

Upon the refusal of the railroad company to pay the fee demanded by the secretary of state, he declined to extend the charter as demanded and the C. B. Q. paid the amount under protest.

Since the fee has been held up pending the outcome of the case in the higher courts. The case of the Chicago Title & Trust company also had its inception during the term of C. J. Doyle as secretary of state. On June 21st, 1912, the corporation consolidated with the Real Estate Title and Trust company, retaining the name of the Chicago Title and Trust company, but increasing the number of directors and its capital from $5,000,000 to $5,600,000. A certificate of increase in capital was filed with the secretary of state, accompanied by a fee of $649. The secretary of state refused to accept the fee unless an additional $5,000 was paid under protest and a bill for an injunction was filed to restrain the secretary of state from paying the fee into the treasury. The defendant demurred, the demurrer was overruled.

The defendant elected to stand by the demurrer and a decree was entered by the circuit court directing the state to return the sum of $5,000 to the plaintiff.

Affirms Lower Court Decision.
The supreme court today affirmed the Vermilion county court in the annexation of certain property to the Hoopston drainage district, in the case of the drainage district vs. Honeywell. The case was brought up on a writ of error to review the annexation order.

Act Held Valid.
The act of 1911 to authorize the organization of high school districts was today held valid by the supreme court in the case of the people against H. S. Crossley of Rock Island. The circuit court was affirmed in refusal to oust the president and members of the school board.

FEDERAL SOLDIERS ARE EXECUTED BY INSURGENTS

American Refugees Report Execution of Thirty Federals—An Act of Revenge.

El Paso, Tex., June 18.—Thirty federal soldiers were executed by the insurgents under General Francisco Villa, was the report made by American refugees arriving here today by hand car from the interior of Chihuahua state. They related that this was a revenge of the federals.

The federals had asked permission to send two trains with women and children through the rebel lines. Villa agreed but on seeing the train approach laden with soldiers he ordered an attack. By the capture of thirty prisoners, many of the government troops were killed and the remainder of the 400 federals were forced to return toward Madera.

WEDNESDAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate.

House.
Not in session. Meets Friday.

RIOT NARROWLY AVERTED IN HOUSE

Munro, Elliott and Zolla, Progressives, Start
the Disturbance

UNABLE TO ADVANCE BILL

Inability to Advance Minimum Wage Bill Without Reference
Is Cause of Row

HOUSE PASSES SALARY BILL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 18.—Another riot was narrowly averted in the house today when three members of the Progressive party—Munro, Elliott and Zolla, started a row over their inability to get the minimum wage bill passed by the senate, advanced to second reading without a reference. Munro raised such a disturbance on the floor of seats in the house that Speaker McKinley finally ordered Doorkeeper Keim to suppress the unruly member.

Munro resented Keim's request that he preserve order and when Assistant Doorkeeper Leonard went to Keim's aid he ordered both away and advanced toward Keim. Instantly Lee O'Neill Browne and a number of Democrats were on their way toward Munro's seat. The Progressives rallied to Munro's support. Speaker McKinley's appeal for order quieted the excited members and all took their seats.

The bill was then called upon a first reading but a motion to advance it was defeated and it went to the rules committee.

The house was in a bad temper prior to Munro's outbreak. The setting off of fire crackers in the hall first aroused the wrath of Speaker McKinley who ordered the railings cleared and the arrest of any person who repeated the offense. The spreading of a "sneezing" powder in the hall of representatives brought the speaker's wrath upon the pages, all of whom were sent home at 10 o'clock.

Urged to Sign Bill.
Twenty six members of the Progressive party—its full strength in the forty-eighth general assembly, called upon Governor Dunne to day in a body and presented a demand that he sign the woman suffrage bill without delay. The measure reached Governor Dunne yesterday and he at once delivered it to Attorney General Lucy with a request for an opinion as to its validity.

The Progressives endorsed Representative Medill McCormick for appointment by the governor on the legislative reference bureau.

Pass Salary Increase.
The salary bill increasing the members of the general assembly of the general assembly from $2,000 to $3,500 for the two year term was passed by the house today by a vote of 81 ayes to 60 nays. The roll was called on the bill in the house yesterday but when it failed to receive 77 votes further consideration was postponed. On the second roll call the bill passed with four votes to spare.

In the senate this bill was advanced to second reading. A conference committee representing both houses was appointed to consider disagreement over amendments to the omnibus appropriation bill. The senate this afternoon refused to take the administration tax committee bill from the senate committee on elections, thereby practically killing it.

The senate this afternoon cleared the calendar of all senate matter by tabling everything except Senator Keller's resolution providing for a committee to investigate state departments with a view to their consolidation. In an amended form senate bill 501, legalizing the transfer of saloon licenses was sent to third reading in the house today. One of the amendments provided that no license under the act which practically is the Harkin ordinance passed by the city council of Chicago and held unconstitutional by the supreme court on the ground that the city was without power to limit the number of saloon licenses that shall be issued for less than a year. Another provides that no transfer shall be made to any person who would be ineligible to receive a license.

To Be Taken Up This Morning.
Springfield, Ill., June 19.—On Senator Clear's motion the house resumed the consideration of the anti-saloons bill was made a special order for consideration at 10 o'clock this (Thursday) morning. Senator Waage's motion to table the bill was defeated 19 to 28. At 12:50 a. m. (Thursday) the senate adjourned to 10 o'clock.

Governor's Appointments.
Governor Dunne this afternoon sent to the senate the following appointments: Len F. W. Stuebe, Danville, Vermilion county, member of state board of architects, vice Edgar A. Payne, term expired. Edward S. Hill, Cairo, public guardian for Alexander county, vice M. S. Gilbert, term expired. Public administrator, David W.

COMMITTEE CLOSES WORK IN CHARLESTON

STRIKE INVESTIGATING BODY LEAVES FOR WASHINGTON

When Sessions Are Resumed a Controversy Will Begin Over Attitude of Senator Martine Toward the Investigation.

BULLETIN.

CHARLESTON, W. V., June 18.—A general strike of miners in the New River coal field, district No. 9, United Mine Workers of America will be called next week according to an announcement tonight by Thomas Haggarty, member of the international miners board. Fifteen thousand men are employed in the New River field.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 18.—The senate mine strike investigating committee closed up its work in Charleston for the present and started tonight for Washington. The committee took under advisement a request by attorneys for the West Virginia coal operators that a sub-committee be allowed to return to Charleston at a later time to complete the taking of evidence which the operators desire to submit. The investigation will be resumed in Washington within the next few weeks.

To day the operators controlling the mines on Paint Creek and Cabin Creek where the troubles of the past year have resulted in riot and bloodshed for the past year continued the presentation of their side of the controversy. Witnesses were called who contradicted the contention of the miners that the presence of the "mine guards" in the district was the cause of the trouble. Other witnesses, men working in the mines on Paint and Cabin Creek told the committee that wages paid and conditions of work and life on the creeks were satisfactory.

Will Start Controversy.

When the committee resumes sessions in Washington, a controversy will begin over the attitude of Senator Martine of New Jersey, one of the members of the committee, toward the investigation. The operators' attorneys to day asked that following yesterday's near fight between Senator Martine and witness Quinn Morton, one of the operators they be allowed to place in the record newspaper articles, one of them including a written statement by Senator Martine, ending the operators' request. The request was made to Senators Swanson and Kenvon, but both argued with the operators and persuaded them to postpone any action in this direction until the committee returned to Washington. A serious controversy over Senator Martine's activities here will probably result.

FIGHT TEN ROUND DRAW.

New Orleans, La., June 18.—Jeff Clark of Joplin, Mo., and Harry Wills of New Orleans, negro heavyweights, fought ten rounds to a draw here tonight.

Mumpher, Quincy, Adams county, vice, John Q. Edwards, term expired. Joseph A. Boos, Newton, Jasper county, vice David Trexler, deceased.

H. E. Kimmel, DuQuoin, Perry county, vice, W. O. Edwards, term expired. Arthur L. Barry, Saline county, vice, W. H. Pankey, term expired.

Rolla L. Russell, Princeton, trustee of the Northern Illinois State Normal school, vice, Adam A. Goodrich, term expired.

"Home Rule" Clause Restored.
The senate tonight took up the administration's public utility bill on second reading and fought out the home rule feature of the bill which is demanded by the mayor and aldermen of Chicago. The bill was called up by Senator Glackin and Senator Percy, who fathered the bill in the senate, offered an amendment restoring to the measure the "home rule" feature which was stricken out of the bill in the house.

Discussion continued until a late hour and at its conclusion roll call was ordered the amendment restoring the "home rule" was adopted by a vote of 31 to 16. The bill now goes back to the house where the "home rule" feature was eliminated.

Pass Holdup Resolution.
At 12:30 the house recessed until 2:30 o'clock, after adopting by a rising vote a factitious resolution offered by Representative Povine, relating to the Illinois Central holdup. The text of the resolution follows: "Whereas, an Illinois Central passenger train was held up last night about 12:30 o'clock by four armed masked men, and $25,000 stolen therefrom, and

Whereas, Representatives Cohnmyer, Coleman, Carter and Atwood were sent to leave the hall of the House of Representatives without leave, about thirty minutes prior to said robbery and enter a closed automobile at the north entrance of the State House and drive rapidly in the direction of said hold-up and

Whereas, since said occurrence there has been some comment as to the movement of said representatives and

Whereas, they always have borne good reputations and conducted themselves in an exemplary manner, and explained their absence to the entire satisfaction of members of this body, therefore be it

Resolved, that the House of Representatives hereby reaffirm our confidence in the high respect for said Representatives and brand as false and malicious any attempt to in any manner connect our worthy members with said crime."

OFFICERS UNABLE TO LOCATE HOLDUP MEN

ARMY OF DEPUTY SHERIFFS AND DETECTIVES HUNT IN VAIN

Blood Hounds Failed to Take Scent of Robbers At Point Where They Left the Engine—Miner is Arrested On Suspicion.

BULLETIN.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 18.—Although an army of sheriff's deputies, special Illinois Central detectives and the entire police force of this city have been scouring the country today for the two masked men who held up the Diamond Special of the Illinois Central near Glenmar early this morning, the bandits remain at liberty.

Bloodhounds brought into play from St. Elmo, Ill., late this afternoon took up a scent near Fifteenth and Maple streets, where two men passed on the run at three o'clock this morning and followed the trail into the city, a short distance from the business section. At his home of James Connelly, 26 years old, a miner, who was found lying in bed asleep, was placed under arrest by the sheriff's force, taken to the county jail and is being held on suspicion of knowing something about the sensational holdup. Later it was stated that the man was not thought to be the right man, but he will be held while the matter is being investigated.

Scatter Cayenne Pepper.

In an effort to prevent bloodhounds from taking up the scent at the point about a mile south of the city, where the bandits left the engine, after they had let it run until the steam was exhausted, the men scattered cayenne pepper about the tracks. One of the few clues upon which the police are working is a bag, purchased in a local grocery store, which contained the pepper. Early this morning, a greasy glove, a revolver, a black tie, were found lying in a meadow near the point where the robbers blew the safe.

Secure About $200.

Contradictory to reports circulated shortly after the robbery occurred, that nothing had been taken from the express car, it was learned late this afternoon that $200 in cash had been taken from a strong box in the express car. Hundreds of express receipts and checks, worthless to the men, were found lying scattered in the meadow where one of the revolvers of the men had been found.

Charles Markham of Chicago, president of the Illinois Central railroad together with officials of the American express company, who are in the city to investigate the case, today offered $1,000 reward for the capture of each of the men.

Blood hounds failed to take the scent of the robbers at the point where they left the engine. Secured But Small Amount.

Late tonight following an inventory taken by officials of the Illinois Central and the American Express company it was stated that the men who held up the "Diamond Special" last night secured but $19.36 in actual cash.

Checks to the aggregate value of $500 were secured but the payments had been stopped. No official statement has been given out as to the amount of cash contained in the safe, but unofficially it is declared that a sum in excess of $50,000 would have been secured by the bandits had they been able to reach the inner compartment of the strong box.

Lawmakers Aid in Search.

Members of the general assembly who joined the sheriff's posse in an all night search for the bandits who held up the Illinois Central passenger train ten miles south of Springfield at midnight, appeared in the house late today, tired and worn.

The law authorities are of the opinion that the bandits were close to their homes when they abandoned the passenger engine at Laurel street on the edge of the city limits. A mile before reaching the city limits the hold-up men required Engineer Shell to get off the engine. They then ran the locomotive with the express car attached to the point where Laurel street crosses the Illinois Central tracks and abandoned it.

A woman in the neighborhood saw the bandits running four blocks from where they abandoned the engine and has furnished a good description of them.

DISCOVER "JOKER" IN SUGAR SECTION

Would Have Operated to Make All Refined Sugar
Dutiable at Two Cents

MADE INVESTIGATION

Senator Shepperd of Texas Called Majority Members Attention to Paragraph

WOULD NOT EXEMPT BRANDIES

WASHINGTON, June 18.—An eleven hour discovery that the sugar section of the Underwood tariff bill had a "joker" in it which would have operated to make all refined sugar dutiable at two cents a pound and nullify the provision for free sugar after three years, resulted today in an amendment by majority members of the senate finance committee.

Elimination in the Underwood bill of the Dutch standard of color which has been in tariff bills for many years, it was discovered, made applicable to all refined sugar a paragraph from the Payne-Aldrich bill relating to confectionary, which included the following words: "Sugars after being refined, when they included color or in any way adulterated, two cents per pound."

The majority members of the finance committee had their attention called to this matter by Senator Shepperd of Texas, who was petitioned by the chamber of commerce of Greenville, Texas, to look into the provision which they believed might defeat the purpose of the administration and the majority in congress as to ultimate free sugar. It was suggested that the bill as it stood could be so construed so as to apply to all refined sugar which in being refined is colored with ultramarine. The Dutch standard which was taken out in the house bill stipulated as to the coloring of refined sugar.

Ordered Investigation.
Members of the finance committee ordered an investigation and President Wilson, when his attention was called to it, agreed that it should be looked into thoroughly.

Late today the majority members of the majority committee received expert reports that the provision might operate as a joker and they promptly struck out the language as it referred to refined sugars and left it applicable only to confectionaries. Another important amendment to the bill agreed upon by the committee would repeal an act passed in 1890 exempting brandies used by manufacturers to fortify grape wines from the general internal revenue tax. This amendment, it is estimated, will increase the government revenue by $7,000,000 a year. The committee tonight had completed all the schedules and Senator Kern, the majority leader, issued a call for a senatorial Democratic conference next Friday. The caucus can take up the rates while the committee is completing work on the income tax and administrative features.

Against Countervailing Duty.

One of the important matters settled today was that a countervailing duty should not be put on livestock and meats which are to go in the free list unrestricted. Wheat and flour will go on the free list but with a countervailing duty.

Rates on leather gloves were increased slightly over the Underwood rates. It also developed that the committee had increased the proposed rates on pig lead and speller zinc concerning which some Democrats made a fight in the house caucus.

Senator Salzbury of Delaware today introduced an amendment to the bill which would raise the limit on personal purchases to be brought in free by travelers from $100 to $350. The amendment would permit a traveler to bring in articles for personal and household use to a value of $250 and for souvenirs and gifts to the value of $100, all such articles not "bought on commission or intended for sale."

Senator Works introduced an amendment providing for a tariff board of mine members, not more than four to be of the same political party and that no member should be a member or an ex-member of congress. The board would be directed to provide duties to protect American goods against "injurious, oppressive or unjust foreign competition."

LAND CASE FROM FRANKLIN INVOLVES TITLE TO EIGHTY ACRES

Heirs of J. T. Sargent Allege He Was of Unsound Mind and Was Unduly Influenced When He Deeded Farm to Charles Roberts.

A case of more than usual interest has been taken under advisement by Judge Thompson after a hearing lasting for several days. Mention has been made before of the case which shows on the records as J. T. Sargent et al against Charles Roberts et al. William N. Haigrove is attorney for the complainants and J. J. Neiger of Virginia is associated with him. Judge Layman, and L. O. Vaughn are attorneys for the defense. The case involves the title to a farm of eighty-seven acres near Franklin, said to be worth $150 an acre. According to the evidence before the court John T. Sargent died in September, 1909, after an extended illness with nephritis. He was a man past 70 years of age and for an extended period had been in poor health. He served in the war of the rebellion and was wounded in a way which resulted in the loss of one leg. Witnesses were brought in to testify that he had been in a sick and weakened condition for an extended period prior to his death.

Wished to Close up Affairs.

According to the evidence in behalf of the complainants on August 11th, 1909, about 20 days prior to his death, Mr. Sargent sent to M. B. Keplinger of Franklin and asked him to come and bring a blank deed, and a blank will, that he wished to fix up his business. Mr. Keplinger went to the Sargent home which is about two miles from Franklin on the date mentioned. Dr. Manley was present at the time and it is alleged that Mr. Sargent told Mr. Keplinger that he wanted to deed his farm to his nieces and nephews. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts were making their home at this time. Charles Roberts came into the room and it is alleged said to Mr. Sargent: "Uncle John I don't want the business fixed up in that kind of a way." Mr. Sargent in reply said: "How do you want me to fix it up?" and Mr. Roberts said "I simply want you to make a deed to this place to me."

Continuing Mr. Roberts is reputed to have said that if the matter was handled in that way that not enough would be given any one of the heirs to amount to anything or do them any good.

Deeded Farm to Mr. Roberts.

Subsequent to this conversation it is alleged that Mr. Sargent signed his will and deed to Charles Roberts had suggested and that he went ahead and had Mr. Keplinger draw a deed willing the entire farm to Charles Roberts. As Mr. Keplinger did not have his notarial seal with him he could not finish the acknowledgement at that time and he asked Mr. Sargent if he wanted him to simply hold the deed or if he wanted it placed on record. Mr. Sargent said that he wanted it recorded and accordingly the day following Mr. Keplinger sent the deed to the office of the circuit clerk and it was placed on record.

The manner in which the deed was recorded is one of the points that the complainants maintain upholds their contentions. They argue that the deed was never delivered in a legal way. They insist that there was no consideration involved and that as Mr. Sargent made no delivery of the deed other than to tell Mr. Keplinger to have the document recorded, that there was no legal transfer of the property. They maintain that if Mr. Sargent had lived that if he had so desired that he would have had the legal right to instruct Mr. Keplinger to return the deed to him and that he could have had the document wiped from the records.

Soon after the death of Mr. Sargent suit was brought by his nephews and nieces against Charles Roberts. Subsequently Mr. Roberts died and from one cause and another there have been various delays in arriving at a final decision in the matter. At a previous term of court the case was referred to Master in Chancery John F. Clark and after taking the evidence of numerous witnesses he brought in a report finding in favor of the complainants and declaring that he believed Mr. Sargent was not of sound mind at the time the deed was made and that undue influence was used in getting him to execute that document. The defendant, however, on exceptions to the master's report took the case before Judge Thompson where it was argued for a number of days. The record taken before the master covers about 379 typewritten pages and it was necessary to review practically all of this testimony before Judge Thompson in addition to the presentation of argument.

Physicians Testified.

Doctor Manley testified before the master because he had attended Mr. Sargent and was present at the time of the signing of the deed. Doctor Norbury, Dr. Rowe, and Dr. McLaughlin testified in behalf of the complainants as experts. Dr. Elder of Franklin testified in behalf of the defendants as an expert. There were a great many witnesses for both sides and the effort of the complainants was to show that for a long period prior to his death Mr. Sargent was physically weak and that he readily yielded to the directions and commands given by his nephew Charles Roberts. They maintain that although Mr. Sargent owned the place and permitted his nephew to live with him that the nephew really controlled the actions of the older man.

When Mr. Sargent died he left a personal estate of $2,000 or $4,000 dollars and as there was no will this was distributed according to law among his relatives including his sister and a large number of nieces and nephews. It is not at all unlikely that the legal battle will be continued in the supreme court after the finding of the circuit court has been made.

CHAPIN.

Preaching services were held at the Willow Branch school house Sunday afternoon by C. D. Hougham. A goodly number were present. Services at Bethel school house next Sunday afternoon.

The ice cream social given by the Willing Workers class of the Christian church in the church lawn was a success in every particular. The Merritt band has been secured for the evening and everyone thoroughly enjoyed their excellent music. A nice sum was cleared, which goes into a fund for the building of a class room.

The members of the Christian church are planning for a picnic and general good time the Fourth of July. Mr. Fred Burnham of Springfield and Rev. Clyde Darsie of Jacksonville, are expected to be present. Particulars as to the place selected for the picnic will be announced later. A band is also expected to be in attendance and furnish music for occasion.

The Gleaners' Bible class enjoyed a hay ride out in the country to the home of H. C. Anderson Tuesday night. A picnic lunch on the lawn was enjoyed by all. T. H. Stone furnished the conveyance.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodward were visiting in the Capital City last Saturday. Miss Ura Woodward returned with them to make an extended visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Woodward.

Wesley Anderson visited his son and daughter in Chicago Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Burnham has purchased a fine new Ford car the past week.

DUTCH SUPPER.

On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Alcott, druggist.

GRACE CHAPEL.

The Grace Chapel Aid society met with Mrs. J. R. Glider last Thursday afternoon. Topic for the meeting: "The Bible." An interesting program was carried out. Delicious refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed by all. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. D. K. McCarty of Litterberry, Mrs. Virginia Bridgman, Mrs. Elma Wiswell, Mrs. Lou Dawson, Mrs. Harry Brainer, Mrs. Elmer Smith, Mrs. Charles Ogle, Mrs. C. E. Wiswell, Mrs. Charles Loughary, Mrs. John Glider, Mrs. D. Turley, Mrs. Wm. Jones, Mrs. Fred Brainer, Misses Millie Wiswell, Della Goodpasture, Agnes Wiswell, Dortha Brainer and Master Dean Brainer. Mr. D. K. McCarty presented the society a large number of curios which he had made from a limb of a live orange tree. These articles show great skill in workmanship and are well worth the small price which Mr. McCarty has placed on them. They will be on sale at an ice cream social to be given on the church lawn Saturday evening, June 28. An apron bazar will be held at the same time.

Sunday school next Sunday morning at 9:30. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Chester Brainer spent last Thursday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. J. A. Tor.

Mrs. Belle Goodpasture and Mrs. Carl Turley spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. James Long.

Mrs. Claude Turley and children spent last week with Mrs. Ham Morris of Virginia.

Charles Long returned to his home in Coffeyville, Kas., last Wednesday, after an extended visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Long.

Mrs. Ed. A. Tor and daughter visited with Mrs. William A. Tor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dyer of Virginia attended services at the Baptist church Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

Mrs. James Charlesworth and children returned Friday from a visit in Iowa.

A. WEIHL*GIVES DETAILS ABOUT*FIRE WHICH BURNED THREE*Brother of Otto and William Spieth
Tried to Give Aid to Children
Burned Near Tigerton, Wis.

Otto and William Spieth have received a copy of the Tigerton, Wis., Chronicle, telling full details of the burning of three little children near that town. Emil Spieth, their brother, made an heroic effort to give aid to the stricken family. Mr. Neubauer was at one time in the employ of the Spieth family and is well known by Otto and William Spieth. The main facts of the tragedy were printed in the Journal a week ago, but more complete details are contained in the article given herewith:

"One of the saddest accidents this community ever witnessed happened Thursday, when the three small children of Mr. and Mrs. August Neubauer were burned to death. Two burned in the building and the other died after she was brought to the doctor's office.

"It is not known how the fire originated. Stumps and brush piles were burning some distance from the house and a spark from these may have set it afire.

"The three children were left alone in the house while Mr. and Mrs. Neubauer were putting building paper on their residence. The house they were living in at the time was a small structure covered with tar paper. This was on the farm he had recently purchased near the Germania town hall.

"It was about 1 o'clock when they discovered the building was on fire and as soon as they reached it Mr. Neubauer rushed into the burning building in an attempt to save the children. The only one he could find was the little girl and after carrying her out he dug sand, with his hands that were burnt to a blister and threw over the child to put out the flames of her clothing. Mrs. Neubauer was slightly burned about the neck and arms while trying to enter the building. All hope of saving the other children was given up and the father ran to the neighbors for help, the first two he came to had no team and after sending them to help the mother and child he ran on to Emil Spieth's. Mr. Spieth hitched up a team and drove after the mother and child, nearly killing the horses in the attempt to bring them to town in time to save the little girl's life.

"There was not a physician in the village, the Doctors Hunt having gone to Marion and Gates was out on a call to Huntington. After considerable phoning Dr. Mulvaney at Marion was reached and came here in an auto and soon after Dr. Gates arrived. Everything was done for the child, but she died at 5 o'clock. Even if a doctor had been right there the little girl could not have been saved.

"The bodies of the baby and the oldest boy were found that evening, burned to a crisp.

Mr. Neubauer is critically ill and is now under the care of Dr. Gates at his office. There would be no danger if it were the burn alone, but the long run and the shock caused by the loss of the children makes the outcome doubtful.

USEFUL REFERENCE BOOK ADDED TO LIBRARY.

The United States Catalogue of Books is one of the volumes added last week to the public library which deserves more than passing mention. In it are mentioned the title, price, publisher and author of every standard book in print in the United States up to 1912. It is a reference work which has been badly needed as many calls come to the library for information as to where various books may be obtained and at what price. The volume contains over twenty-eight hundred pages and over 350,000 entries of books. Its cost was $35.

Former Jacksonville Boy Graduated From Illinois Wesleyan—Will Represent American Trading Co.

Ruthvan E. Nichols, formerly of this city, graduated from Wesleyan university yesterday with the degree of bachelor of science. This year's graduating class at Wesleyan is the largest in the history of that institution. Friends will recall that Mr. Nichols attended Illinois college for two years, and while here was active in college enterprises, playing on the basketball team and representing Illinois in the state intercollegiate oratorical contest.

At Wesleyan he has been active in athletics, playing on the various teams. Immediately following the football game with Yale this fall he was severely injured, and only a fortunate operation by a New York surgeon saved him from being a cripple for life.

Nichols will commence work immediately with the American Trading company in New York. Here he will be located for eight months, after which he will be sent to Shanghai, China, as one of their agents. Nichols has secured the most lucrative position of any of his classmates.

MANY ATTEND ROUTT COLLEGE ALUMNI FEAST

EXCELLENT BANQUET SERVED WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Very Rev. J. W. Crowe Acts As Toastmaster and Good Program of Talks is Heard—Rs Presented to Players.

An inspiring gathering of the alumni, and former students of Routt college was held at the school Wednesday evening, the occasion of the annual banquet of the alumni of the institution.

Tables were arranged in the gymnasium of the building and at 7:30 o'clock fully one hundred members of the faculty, graduates, alumni, and former students of the school were served with an excellent menu by Vickery & Merrigan.

Father Crowe Opens Program.
Very Rev. J. W. Crowe acted as toastmaster for the evening and in opening the program said in part: "I miss many old faces among those here tonight, and I think that every person who was ever permitted to go to this college should be present. This is an hour of mirth, enthusiasm and recreation. Mr. Routt is ill and not able to be with us tonight, and the same is true of the younger Mr. Routt, I regret to say, but his thoughts are with us."

"It has been said to me that the reason many do not attend the banquets is because they are afraid of being called on for a speech, but I don't believe that, in fact, I think you ought to be called and not let talk as long as you wish. You don't believe in intellectual feasts, after having had a hard year of it, but we are going to have one. Our first thought is for the new graduates, the young lady who received as high an honor as the college can confer, and to the four who graduated from the academy. It is in their honor that this banquet is held each year. We are unworthy children of a noble father and unworthy to be called alumni of the college if we forget it during the year or neglect to praise it at every opportunity. Be enthusiastic members of the college and don't forget that you are still united with it."

Congratulate the Graduates.

The first two called were Miss Mary Mahoney, who graduated from the college, and Miss Ethel Sweeney. They offered their congratulations to the graduates and the next speaker called was Edward Alexander, who said in part: "I don't like to be limited to twenty minutes, because I think it unfair to ask a person to start a speech in that length of time. When I graduated last night it made me review the events of the last four years in this institution. When we finished the eighth grade we didn't think there was much more that we could learn. Twenty-seven entered this school when I did, and many were pupils of ability. It was too bad that they couldn't go on. I will always be grateful and never forget the pains that my teachers took with me and the other pupils and I can't believe there is any other school in the country where the teachers take such an interest in the pupils."

John Keely, a representative of the first year of school was next called on, and offered a word of congratulation to the graduates and appreciation for the benefits he had received at the school. Miss Elizabeth Sloan, who was the next speaker, gave the class prophesy, which was written in a very clever manner.

Speaks On "Character Building."

Miss Frances Tuite, the next speaker, had for her subject, "Character Building" and her remarks were quite interesting. "All realize that colleges are great builders of character," said Miss Tuite, "and Routt college deserves that reputation. Its course of study in books compares excellently with other schools and its teachers are broad-minded persons of high ideals. The proverbial absent-minded professor is an absent quantity here. When so many institutions of learning have deviated from the right course, we should congratulate ourselves that we have an opportunity to attend such a school as Routt college and let us do all we can to make the college a builder of character."

Miss Margaret Ring, representative of the alumni, was the next speaker called on and the substance of her remarks follows: "It is a great pleasure to meet all my old friends again and it is a great thing to be permitted to return to this college, as next to our own homes, the members of my class regard this as about the dearest place there is. We enjoy advantages here that we could not have in other Catholic colleges, and I am sure not in non-Catholic colleges. When students go from our college to others, after they have taken the examinations they usually go a few steps higher than they were at Routt. In a great many respects this college is a great deal better and its results have always been good. All who have ever gone to this school have been better for it. If they have only been here for a short time. If this success in the past is to be continued, it must be by the united gratitude of all of the pupils. When I think of the founders of this institution I think of two sets of founders, the two laymen who gave the material for the institution the Messrs. Routt, and the two spiritual founders, Father Crowe and Father Formaz."

Luke Mandeville, another of the alumni, was next called upon and responded with a word regarding the manner in which the annual feasts are always looked forward to by both the students of the school and the alumni. After congratulating the graduates he continued: "When we go out into the world we are able to see and appreciate the advantages and the quality of work that we have been able to do while students in this institution. All should rejoice in the progress enjoyed by Routt college, and although its growth in buildings has not been phenomenal, nevertheless, it has progressed and its policy should be quality first and then quantity."

Emphasizes School's Advantages.

Rev. Father F. F. Formaz, principal of the college, was the next speaker and in opening his address he referred to the column of the Chicago Tribune conducted by B. L. T. "In that column," he said, "that individual has a paragraph under the heading 'Canned Lies,' and among these 'Canned Lies' I noticed one which was to the effect that when a person is called on for a toast at a banquet, the answer is almost invariably, 'Not expecting to be called on for a speech tonight I came unprepared, but nevertheless, I wish to say that I am glad to be with you tonight.' That is where I stand. I don't know what I could say that would add to what has already been said. A great deal of insistence has been put on the fact that this is a small institution. I wish to emphasize the fact that smallness or bigness has nothing to do with the results of a school. There has been as much done in this world by little men as there has been by large men, and the same is true with Routt college. I do not hesitate to say that many pupils who attend the other institutions of learning in this city will not believe what is actually being done here. Take our pupils and compare them with pupils of other schools and I think ours are better. In spite of the fact that this college is in its infancy, our pupils do things as well as pupils in other schools."

Prof. Thomas Quigley was the next speaker and he stated that he heartily concurred in all that Father Formaz had stated regarding the school and he wished to congratulate the students of the school on the amount of reading they had been doing and encouraged them to continue the practice. "Miss Webber, the librarian at the public library," he said, "told me that the pupils from our school took more books from the library, proportionately, than the pupils from any other school in the city. She said that they were readers of good books, and I think they are more to be congratulated from the fact that we have a library at the school that is well patronized by them. We have here in this school a good library and I sincerely hope that you will continue to read good books as you have done in the past."

Prof. Hyacinth Dejean of the faculty was the next speaker and he spoke at length on the value of a moral as well as a literary education, emphasizing the fact that the evils of society cannot be remedied by a literary education alone, but that there must be a thorough moral education, which is brought about by the teaching of the true and practical religion and that Routt college has this necessary element in its instruction.

Rs Presented to Players.
Prof. Leo Hickson was the last speaker called upon and he spoke of the many advantages that were offered to the students of the school. Continuing he said: "When I came into the building I noticed the date on the cornerstone and thought of the growth and development of this institution. I asked myself if there is another school similar to Routt college in the country. No, I don't think of another college in the whole country where a student is offered free such an education in arts and sciences. The boarding school was just started last fall and has completed its first year of good work. Well may you praise and imitate the virtues that have been laid down in the cornerstone of this school and you should praise and say a prayer for Routt college and for the continuance in life of the master mind that has made this school a possibility."

Following his remarks Mr. Hickson presented to members of the basketball team with the "Rs." Those who received them were Alexander, Donovan, Butler, Caldwell and Wheeling and monograms were presented to Froelich and Wlask.

After the program of speeches a flashlight picture was taken and the banquet adjourned to the auditorium of the building where dancing was enjoyed.

JUDGE HAND'S LONG ILLNESS TIES UP COURT BUSINESS

Chief Justice Cooke Issues Statement Giving Reason For Delay.

Springfield, Ill., June 18.—That the illness of Supreme Court Justice J. P. Hand is tying up some of the business of the court is evinced by the following statement made from the bench today by Chief Justice George A. Cooke:

"For the information of counsel and litigants who are interested, and in order that they may understand the reason for the delay, the court desires to state that owing to the severe and protracted illness of Mr. Justice Hand we have been unable to agree on decisions in some cases. This applies to three petitions for re-hearing which have been pending for some time and also to a number of cases taken under advisement."

With Judge Hand ill the court is evenly divided, three to three, in these cases. Judge Hand has been ill since last December. His recovery is said to be doubtful.

GIGANTIC COAL DEAL HAS BEEN CONSUMMATED

Vast Tract of Land in Colorado Taken Over By Belgium and French Capitalists.

Denver, Colo., June 18.—A gigantic coal deal, whereby 30,000 acres of the most valuable of the Routt county coal lands will be taken over by a combination of Belgium and French capitalists, and a railroad built from Hayden, Colo., to Casper, Wyo., reaching into the entire west and northwest market, will be consummated in Denver within a few days. Plans for the huge venture have been completed and with the arrival of a party of the capitalists, including one member of the reigning house of Belgium, which sailed from Antwerp last week, the deal will be put through.

Plans of the combination call for the immediate expenditure of $22,000,000 in Colorado and Wyoming. Denver will be the base of supplies and the project promises to be one of the greatest begun in Colorado in twenty-five years.

Deal Has Been Consummated.
A. R. Bickens, of the Consolidated Securities company of Toronto, Canada, and Benjamin L. Dorsey, representing the European capitalists, have been taken over the vast area of coal lands. The company has been formed and will be known as the Yampa Fuel and Iron company. Bonds for $28,000,000 will be floated on the continent.

Plans for the railroad, to be known as the Colorado and Northern railway company, have been completed, and as soon as the foreign capitalists have signified their approval immediate work will be commenced.

The road will extend from Hayden on the Moffat road, through the Routt county coal lands to Hahn's Peak, a copper and placer mining district. It will mean the opening up of the old copper mines and the revival of the placer mining industry in that section.

It will then extend through the rich copper fields of the Battle Lake district to Walcott, Wyo., 105 miles. There it will intersect the main line of the Union Pacific railway, thereby furnishing transportation facilities for the coal east to Omaha and Council Bluffs and as far west as Los Angeles.

Opens Vast Coal Market.
From Walcott the road will extend to Casper, Wyo., connecting with the Chicago and Northwestern lines and with the Burlington. By connections facilities will be afforded to place Colorado coal in the northwest as far as St. Paul and Minneapolis, and Puget Sound in the northwest. By the Hayden connection with the Moffat road, the company will be able to transport coal by way of Denver into Kansas and Nebraska. With the connections of the various systems, afforded by the line to be built, the entire west and northwest will be turned into one huge market for Colorado product. The road will be 210 miles in length.

The planning of the deal has been under way six months and only recently were the final details of the work arranged and the word forwarded to the Europeans to come and see.

By the plans as explained by Dorsey and Bickens, construction of the railway will be carried on from five terminal points. Denver is to be made the base of supplies and the contracts probably will be let to Denver contractors.

Thousands to Be Employed.
It is believed that employment for several thousand laborers will be afforded and that upon the completion of the section of the road from Hayden to Walcott several hundred miners will be put to work in the coal mines of Routt county. The first section of the road from Hayden to Walcott will be completed within a year, according to Bickens. Immediately on completion of that division five plants will be opened, with an average daily output of 5000 tons. Within five years the officials of the company claim the daily output will amount to fully 20,000 tons, and at least ten plants will be in operation, giving employment to 3,500 miners.

Within two years the promoters assert the line to Casper will have been completed. That part of the road extending from Walcott to Casper will pass through the big Seminole iron deposits, said to be the finest in America, and probably will mean a development of that section.

"The establishment of our railway connection with four of the big lines will mean an unlimited market for our coal and will bring about a huge development in the western part of Colorado and of Wyoming," Dorsey said.

"While the opening up of the coal lands is the purpose of our outlay, capital on the railroad, many other mining regions, such as the Hahn's Peak placer gold and copper district, will also be reopened, and the mining industry in general revived," Mr. Dorsey explained.

"We expect to make Denver our base of supplies and we believe our outlay of capital will be one of the greatest booms to the state that has occurred in many years. We shall expend $22,000,000 and the greater part of it will be right in Colorado. The business thus brought to Denver will be enormous."

ALLEGED LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS

CITY BRINGS SUITS AGAINST VARIOUS PROPERTY OWNERS AND OTHERS.

Charge That In Certain Buildings Liquors Are Stored and That People Congregate There in Violation of City Ordinances—Temporary Injunctions Granted by Judge Thompson.

Four separate bills for injunctions were filed Wednesday in the office of Circuit Clerk Pyatt by P. P. Thompson, city attorney, wherein the defendants are alleged to be selling or distributing liquors in violation of the city ordinance passed July 8, 1912. The court was asked for an order in each restraining the defendants from using the buildings for the purposes alleged and temporary writs were issued by Judge Thompson, the hearing thereon to be at the November term of court. One case is directed against Annie Reisch, George Reisch, Joseph Reisch, Joseph Baptist and John Vieira. Another case is against James T. Rabbit and Samuel Ornellas; a third against Edward and John Konrad and the fourth against Grace Ferreira and John A. Smith. The action is similar to that brought some months ago against Annie Reisch, John Vieira et al.

Allege Building a Nuisance.

In the bill filed against Reisch and others the city represents that the defendants are owners of certain real estate on West Court street, being a brick two story building which has been occupied by Joseph Baptist and it is alleged with the knowledge and consent and permission of the defendants that beer and other liquors are stored and kept there and that certain persons are permitted to gather there and drink intoxicating liquors in violation of the city ordinance. It is set forth that the building as now conducted is a nuisance and is dangerous to the health, morals, safety and welfare of the public. It was said that Joseph Baptist and John Vieira occupy and use this building and take orders for beer and other liquors in the building and that they permit other people to keep there and to congregate for the purpose of drinking. The court was asked for a temporary injunction to prevent the defendants from keeping or occupying the premises for the alleged illegal uses as aforesaid and to prevent people from congregating therein for the purpose of drinking. The affidavits accompanying the bill is signed by George P. Davis, Chief of Police setting forth that he believed that facts in the bill are true and correct. Attached to the bill is a copy of the ordinance passed by the City Council July 8, 1912 which furnishes the basis for bringing the suits.

Other Bills Filed.

In the bill filed against James T. Rabbit and Samuel Ornellas it is alleged that Mr. Rabbit is the owner of the brick two story building on East Court street and that the same has been occupied by Samuel Ornellas and with the knowledge and consent of James T. Rabbit and that liquors have been received and stored there and that people have gathered there for the purpose of drinking. The allegations are practically the same in all points as in the bill asked in the Vieira case.

In the proceeding against Edward and John Konrad it is shown that Edward Konrad is the owner of part of lot 66 in the original City of Jacksonville, and that a brick one story building located thereon on Broadway alley has been used by John and Edward Konrad as a place for storing beer and other liquors; that orders have been received there for liquors and that people have been permitted to congregate there and drink liquors.

In the fourth bill filed it is set forth that Grace Ferreira is the owner of a two story building located at 221 North Sandy street and that since the passage and acceptance of the city ordinance governing liquor sales that the same has been used by John A. Smith. It is alleged that beer and other liquors have been stored there and orders have been received and that divers persons have been permitted to congregate there for the purpose of drinking it. It will be noticed that the charges made in each case are practically identical. In each case Chief of Police Davis made the affidavit.

PROPOSAL FOR BIDS.

Bids will be received by the county commissioners until 12 o'clock, noon June 21, A. D., 1913 for the following to-wit:

3469 square feet of concrete walk, 196 linear feet of concrete curb and gutter.

113 linear feet of concrete curb. In accordance with the specifications on file in the office of the county clerk.

Curbings to be bid on separately. Bids must be accompanied by a certified check in the sum of ten per cent (10 per cent) of the total bid. The commissioners reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

HOT WEATHER SERMONS.

Last year Rev. Mr. Alkire of Brooklyn church carried his church services without a break throughout the heated term. He gave a series of sermons on the church lawn on Sunday nights, and they grew in popularity until several hundred people drove along in autos, carriages, etc., or took seats which had been arranged on the grass.

This year Brooklyn church will follow the same plan. Rev. Alkire has already announced some of his special themes, and we publish the names herewith: "Whitewashing," "Boxes," "Human Hurdling," "What's the Use?" "Stepmothers," "Ticks."

Others will be announced from time to time. Very special music will be provided and these timely topics will furnish enjoyable hours for the people who love the out-door service.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

Estate of Nancy E. Halley, Deceased.
The undersigned having been appointed executor of the last will and testament of Nancy E. Halley, late of the County of Morgan and State of Illinois, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will appear before the County Court of Morgan County, at the Court House in Jacksonville, at the August Term, on the first Monday in August next, at which time all persons having claims against said estate are notified and requested to attend for the purpose of having the same adjusted.

All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to the undersigned.

Dated this 9th day of June A. D. 1913.

BICYCLE RIDERS ATTENTION.

Section 14 of our city ordinance says: "No person shall ride any bicycle on any sidewalk in said city, adjacent to any paved street; and every person violating this section shall be fined not less than five nor more than ten dollars for every offense."

The police department has had numerous complaints about this matter and the officers have been instructed to arrest every one caught violating this ordinance.

Geo. P. Davis, Chief Police.

WILL VISIT SCENES OF HIS BOYHOOD DAYS.

Dr. Harker To Spend Two Months in Durham County England

As mentioned before Dr. J. R. Harker will take a two months' greatly needed rest this summer. The coming week he will start east and will spend a day or two at his daughter's, Mrs. Atherton in Cincinnati and will then proceed to New York where business connected with the educational board will occupy his attention for several days. Saturday morning June 28, he will sail on the Carmania of the Cunard line for London. He has no definite program mapped out for his stay in England other than that he intends to spend his time in Durham County visiting the scenes of his early life. The Harker family numbering fourteen left England when he was but 18 years of age. After landing in New York they came to Chicago and left Chicago for Duquoin on the morning of October 9th, 1871. That date is memorable in Illinois history because it marked the beginning of the great Chicago fire. The family had relatives near Duquoin and for that reason chose that locality as their home. Dr. Harker did not remain there long as he soon afterward began teaching work in De Soto Illinois. From De Soto he went to Beardstown, then to Meredosia and Waverly, and from the latter place came to Jacksonville to take the principalship of Whipple Academy. Morgan county people and many who are not residents for that matter are very familiar with the splendid work he has been accomplishing in the years since. For a number of years the trustees of the college have been trying to get President Harker to take a vacation which they knew was greatly needed but not until this summer could he be persuaded that the time had come when he absolutely must give up work for a few weeks at least.

MONTANA EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Kalispell, Mont., June 18.—Many delegates have arrived here for the annual convention of the Montana State Epworth League, which is to hold its sessions here during the remainder of this week. Bishop Luckock and a number of other prominent churchmen and missionaries are scheduled to address the convention.

CENTENARY OF RIVER RAISING MASSACRE.

Montee, Mich., June 18.—Exercises in observance of the centennial anniversary of the "River Raisin Massacre" were held today on the battlefield site near this place. The actual date of the massacre was January 23, 1813. On January 22 of that year General Winchester, with about 800 Americans, was encamped on the river, when General Proctor, with 1,500 British and Indians fell upon them. After a severe action General Winchester surrendered under promise of protection from the Indians. After the withdrawal of the British, however, the Indians returned, and killed and scalped several hundred of the defenseless Americans.

FOOCHOW PROVES TO HAVE MANY WONDERS

JACKSONVILLE TOURISTS FIND MUCH THERE TO INTEREST THEM.

School for Blind Boys Presents Many Extremely Pathetic Cases—Government Maintains Silk Worm Institution—The Metal Bearers.

(By S. W. Nichols)

Fochow, China.

A School for Blind Boys.

Near the south gate of Fochow is an enterprise which I can hardly describe without shedding tears. As in all heathen countries a deformed or deficient person is looked upon as a calamity, to be disposed of the best way possible. Fifteen years ago a noble woman, Mrs. Amy Isabel Wilkinson, a native of Australia, and her husband engaged in mission work in Fochow, conceived the idea of trying to teach the blind. She had no funds and was indorsed by no organization or board, but bravely went to work to do what she could. After some length from the report she has published. She began by renting a native house consisting of a front room ten feet square, two small bedrooms and a kitchen, and there began her labor of love. A few blind boys were invited to come and receive instruction and then began the work of teaching them to read and to make useful articles, matting being the chief thing. It can be made from materials at hand or secured within the province, and while at first the idea that the blind could ever make any such thing was scoffed, now it is admitted that their matting is the best and they have several medals won in strong competition at fairs and exhibitions.

The Boxer troubles caused the school to be closed and during that time Mrs. Wilkinson went home and managed to interest a number of persons in the enterprise and secure funds for better carrying on the work, which is as yet wholly an enterprise of faith. A plant was bought and a brief description is given. All such enterprises are located in a compound, which means a small territory surrounded by a wall, either of mud, stone or brick. A small gate in the thick mud admits to a large and much needed playground, which is much used and enjoyed, while fine banyan trees supplies shade, which the boys like very much. Through a covered veranda the teachers' headquarters are reached and besides that is the schoolroom. We see here first a blind teacher, pleasant and intelligent and who has nine boys under him, their average age being nine years. One little fellow has a pathetic history and not at all unusual. In order to be saved the cost of feeding the child the inhuman father tied the little fellow and left him in the jungle, to be devoured by wild beasts. His cries finally attracted the attention of some one, who rescued him and he was adopted by a native Christian, who is seeking to his education, hoping to make a minister of him later on. Another bright little fellow was buried alive by his father, but he was dug up by some one with a kind heart. Another boy was suffered to come to the very verge of starvation before being rescued and these are typical of many more stories which could be told.

Going back to the main building they oices of the boys were heard as they were at work at the tasks provided. The first ones given the little ones are simple, making of strings from the different fibers provided and a good article is the result. Other boys are making mats from palm tree fiber and many more articles are in process of construction. A fine quality of matting is produced and various articles, such as baskets and the like, are turned out. The dormitories are neat and comfortable and a guest room is a part of the outfit. The good people of the American missions have made a large wooden map of China and it takes to pieces, each province being detachable and it is much used by the boys. Books are supplied as far as possible by different friends and the Braille system is used successfully. The boys have a part of the scriptures and a hymn book is shortly to be published for their use.

In addition to the rooms described here are the teachers' rooms and a drill ground, where the boys have various exercises. The small boys have the dumb bell exercises and the larger one soldier drill. They march, counter march to the music of "O'ward, Christian Soldier," and the spectacle is indeed impressive. They have two cornets and a small drum and go through their exercise with precision and ability. Some of the older boys sing well, one plays the violin and two the organ. More instruments could be used to advantage and many other things in the equipment. For the small boys a novel plan for exercise has been devised. Wires are stretched from one end of the drill ground to the other and three feet apart and two feet high. On the wires are placed moveable blocks like railroad and a little fellow will get between the wires, take hold of a block and run back and forth to his heart's content without running against any one or being disturbed. Playthings are much needed by the boys and a host of articles could be used to advantage.

The boys assemble in the large school room at six in the morning, when prayers are said, followed by the regular program of the day, meals, work, play and the like till nine in the evening, when lights are put out and all are in bed. Their meals consist of rice principally, varied with fish and vegetables as is possible and good food makes an appreciable difference in the appearance of the boys. The great desideratum is to prepare the boys for self support and other accomplishments. Some seventy boys are being cared for and several have been refused for lack of room. The work of the boys is of a superior quality, as I have stated, and shams are not permitted. Music and other accomplishments are attempted and in all cases a gratifying degree of success has been attained. Generally the boys are supposed to be ready for the battle of life after eight years of training and many have gone out to be teachers, musicians and workers in the goods already described.

The foregoing is a very meager description of the place and the work and when we remember that it is the work of one woman, it is indeed a marvel. The lady's husband is an accomplished physician and surgeon and is doing a work similar to that of Dr. Kinnear. When we recall the fact that this whole plant is the work of one woman it is indeed a marvel. She has friends who help her, but much more funds could be used with fine results. The prejudice she had overcome, the difficulties encountered and mastered, all show her to be a person of superior ability and devoted to the welfare of her unfortunate fellow beings, and too much praise cannot be accorded her. It is my hope that I may be able to introduce her goods in the stores in our city, for she makes a fine article of what ever she attempts to do.

A school for the blind girls is being begun, though I was unable to visit it and was informed that it was not yet under way to a great extent.

The Silk Worm Industry.

One day we had the pleasure of visiting a silk worm institution, where the government is instructing some eighty or more young men in the scientific cultivation of the silk worm and its products. This is more in line with native possibilities and is fairly well carried on, with foreigners in especial charge. One of them conducted us through and it was a great and interesting sight. There are in the establishment about 700,000 worms and some were industriously gnawing away at the mulberry leaves provided and others had begun to spin. When the moth leaves it shell it lays a large number of eggs and these are taken and carefully preserved in a cool place and not permitted to hatch until the proper time of the year, when they are put in a warm place, in which they hatch and the little worms make their appearance and henceforth are objects of careful solicitude. They are fed and when ready to spin are put among some kind of rough place like the twigs of a tree or a lot of bamboo strips mingled together and there they spin the cocoon or chrysalis and in due time it is removed and treated according to the use to be made of it. If intended for breeding it is left undisturbed and at the proper time the eggs hatch out, but only a few are thus used, the greater part being placed in the hands of operators, who boil them and then placing the cocoon on a pin in a little simple machine the delicate thread is started round a wheel, and carefully wound and one cocoon is said to be good for a thread two thousand feet long and they are made into skeins and sold to the manufacturers. The whole process is wonderfully interesting and shows cheiliculate works of nature and how they may be diverted to the uses of man.

The Metal Bearers.

A prominent industry is that of metal beating or preparing native offerings to the idols. The manner in which this is done and the results obtained are wonderful. Thousands of sheets of silver paper, so-called, are burned before the idols and to deceive the wooden gods the worshippers pretend to be offering the pure metal, while the stuff they burn is thin almost beyond belief. The thinnest kind of tissue paper is thick beside it and it floats away on the slightest touch or breath. It is laboriously hammered out from thin pieces of metal, a kind of amalgam of tin, silver and possibly some other. The pieces given the bearers are about an inch wide, two and a half long and a sixteenth of an inch thick and these are placed on a metal block and for thirty days the workmen sit and pound away with heavy hammers till the metal is reduced to the desired thickness. It is then placed on sheets of paper and sold by the million to worshippers, who burn it before the idols and think they are doing a meritorious deed. It is said to see intelligent appearing persons bowing before the hideous images which and see the gross superstition that prevails. Right behind the shop where the metal workers were pounding away were a lot of graves, though it was not a regular cemetery. There was a concrete structure of cement, octagonal in shape and ten or twelve feet high and it was called the baby tower and into it many a little one is cast, often when not dead from natural causes. In fact, the destruction of female infants has gone so far in some localities that there is a direct scarcity of women and they are at a premium. The awful practice is not so prevalent as it was, but still there is far too much of it done.

Our stay at Fochow has been a constant ovation and politeness and hospitality have been bestowed on us till we feel like staying here the rest of our time, but we must move on. I have had the pleasure of talking to the students in the college and other audiences almost twice daily on the average and Mr. Ewert has also spoken and has preached in the union chapel on the other side of the river. We have been received more like relatives than anything else and we cannot say enough in praise of the splendid hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Christian and the good people associated with them. Mr. Ewert has also been fortunate in finding in the theological seminary at Boston, Rev. Mr. Ward, a splendid gentleman, who entertained us in fine style. His home would have been open to us at all times had we not been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Christian. Too much cannot be said in praise of the men and women on the missionary field. They possess eminent common sense, have excellent business qualifications and a devotion to the work that knows no bounds. Cheerful and happy, they are to be envied for what they are doing, while the importance of the labors of these people is great. They alone cannot do much toward the reading of the gospel and showing them a better way, but they are preparing the schools hundreds of young people who will go out and sow the good seed, whose crop is better conditions here on earth and a reward that passes all knowledge hereafter, and always feeling like taking my hat off to them.

Our last hours were filled with regret as well as pleasure in thinking of the fine time we had enjoyed. It was hard to turn our backs forever on the compound where we had been so grandly entertained, but we must go. So soon as coxies are secured to carry the baggage and ourselves to the landing, we take the steam launch for the steamer in the bay at the mouth of the river, some twelve miles distant. Fochow is that much out of the ordinary line of travel and is seldom visited by foreigners, so seldom indeed that there is no hotel there and no accommodations for travelers, for there are not enough to make it pay at all.

A goodly number followed us to the landing, though it was nearly nine in the evening when we started. The steam launch had absolutely no accommodations what ever for passengers, being wholly devoted to freight, so we had to make the best of a hard situation. Perched on top of an indiscriminate lot of goods we were so high that we had to bend our heads under the canvas awnings above us and to add to our discomfort it began to rain in a lively manner. We bestowed the ladies in as comfortable a place as possible and then went to see to the baggage, which was getting wet, and place it in a dry spot. We raised an umbrella and sat in discomfort and drizzling rain all the way, the drops filtering through the insufficient roof above us. With bent heads and feet bent as best we could, with natives below us and lack of comfort all about us we dearly rode down the river.

Once the boat stopped a few minutes and we feared she had struck a sandbar and would be kept there all night, but to our great relief she moved on after a long and undefined wait. To add to our happiness we had in tow a houseboat belonging to some well-to-do Chinese and we could look through their windows and see them enjoying all possible comforts, while we were as miserable as mortals well could be, but at last, after what seemed an interminable time, we saw the lights of our steamer and soon were alongside and on board in the most comfortable and attractive quarters, and Mr. Ewert and myself were soon in the land of dreams, and we suppose the others of the party imitated our example. A Trip to Ing Hok.

Although Fochow is well out of the regular line of travel, still I wanted to see more of the interior of this great and wonderful country and study conditions at first hands and to that end we decided on a trip to Ing Hok, a city forty miles up the river of the same name, the river being a tributary of the river Min, an important stream in China. I wish a better writer than myself could do this for me, for I feel wholly unable to do the subject justice. I was utterly unprepared for the sights which awaited us and shall never forget the experiences of the journey. Our company consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Christian, our kind entertainers at Fochow, Miss Strang, a missionary teacher, and our own four

The stream is so shallow and full of rapids that it is not navigable any distance by steam craft and small boats, flat bottomed and able to go where the ground is a little damp have to be used, especially on the latter part of the country, so I will first describe our method of travel.

Mr. Christian hardly wanted to introduce us to the most primitive way at the start, so he secured what is called a house boat, a craft something over forty feet long, with a sort of den in the rear, in which the owner and his family abide. Amidship are two tiny cabins about as large as a good sized closet, and in front is an apartment perhaps seven feet by nine, which serves as sitting room, dining room, reception room and all else, while in front of that is the deck, on which at times the boatmen are occupied. The river is most affected by the tides and at times has no current at all or flows up stream and down rapidly when the tide goes out. The boat is propelled by poles pushed against the bottom of the stream, oars and at times a crude sail when the wind is fair. In this we rode a part of the first day as far as it could go and at night we tied up and giving the cabins to the ladies the men made themselves as comfortable as possible in the dining room and we passed a satisfactory night. We had taken with us bedding or blankets and quilts in plenty and our own provisions, so we were well prepared for a regular picnic and excursion in our own way. Mr. Christian had his cook from the house along with us and we lacked nothing for the comforts of life and esteemed the trip little hardship, but instead a joyous lark.

Next morning we had to make a change, for the shallow part of the river was reached and our houseboat was unable to get by them, so we took a smaller craft called a sampan, which is a flat bottomed affair about 35 feet long, provided with a sail, which may occasionally be used, but mostly propelled by man power, poles ropes and oars being used. This boat too was occupied by the owner and his family, who existed in the rear part of a space hardly large enough to enable one to turn around while in front of the family quarters was a space perhaps six feet by eight in which the passengers may ride. Seats were improvised and off we started. The experience to us was indeed novel and at times thrilling. The owner worked at the oars or in any way possible, and three more were needed to propel the craft and at times they had all they could do. The river was shallow and often the bottom of the boat would scrape the rocks beneath, but we knew we couldn't drown. Much of the way two men would be at one end of a long rope tugging away on the shore, pulling the boat along, and in front, across the bow, was a short pole firmly secured and frequently a man would leap into the stream and push away at the pole and keep the boat from going against the rocks. I think without an exaggeration it was the most strenuous journey I ever took and conditions were very favorable too. Sometimes all four would tug with all their might and it would seem as they would dash against the rocks in spite of their efforts, but they managed to get along every time.

Once we approached an especially

Fine Remedy For Eczema

Also for Salt Rheum, Tetter, Psoriasis, Lupus, and All Skin Afflictions.

Even a Microscope Won't Find a Blemish After S. S. S. Gets Through.

All skin troubles should be attacked from within by giving the blood circulation a good daily bath. This is accomplished with S. S. S., the best known and most highly recommended blood purifier ever discovered. Its action is very rapid. Its vegetable nature is such that it naturally goes right into the blood, saturates the entire circulation, bathes the tissues with an influence that enables the skin to heal quickly. The action of S. S. S. is that of an antidote, and this fact has been demonstrated time and time again in the most severe forms of weeping eczema.

Its influence in the tissues where the tiny arteries transfer the red blood for the worn out blood to the veins is quite remarkable and goes on constantly with every tick of the clock—the beat of the heart.

And new skin is thus caused to form while the germs of irritating inducements that cause eczema are scattered and their harmful nature entirely suspended.

S. S. S. has a wonderful tonic influence in the blood because it contains no "dope," is not a "physic," is entirely free of any mineral drugs or any other drugs except the remarkable medicinal effect of the pure vegetable products of which it is made.

Few people realize how harmful are many of the strong, crude ointments that used to be in favor before they learned that S. S. S. is safe, speedy and sure. Ask at any drug store for a bottle of S. S. S. Give it a good trial and you will soon see a decided improvement in any form of skin trouble. Write to The Swift Specific Co., 117 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for special free advice on eczema and any other form of skin or blood trouble.

FOR LADIES, TOO.

How Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpelide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair from falling out, and thicken the growth with Herpelide's "Herpelide." Besides, Herpelide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpelide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow back as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Herpelide's Herpelide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or discolor. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SECRETARY STEPHENSON HAS PASSED EIGHTY-FIFTH YEAR.

Is Accounted Richest Man in Wisconsin—Made Money in Lumber.

Washington, June 18.—Senator Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin, the oldest member of the upper house in point of age, entered upon his 85th year today, but is as vigorous as the average man of fifty. For many years Senator Stephenson has been an influential figure in the financial and industrial affairs of his state.

Senator Stephenson is a type of the self-made, self-educated American, being worth at least $15,000,000. The bulk of his vast fortune was made in lumber. His boyhood was spent in poverty.

Mr. Stephenson was born on June 18, 1829, near the city of Frederick, N. B. He went to Wisconsin with his family when he was only 16 years old and was one of the first to plough its soil. At that time his parents were so poor that the children had to go barefooted, even in the winter. When only 17 the future senator broke 130 acres of land near Janesville and helped put in 400 acres of wheat. In the winter he went into the lumber regions and worked hard and faithfully, hauling logs with a six ox team. In 1850 he began to do business on his own account. During the summers he sailed vessels on the lakes and during the winters he continued to work in the lumber camps.

Being a good judge of the value of timber, he was able to locate for himself and associates hundreds of thousands of acres in northern Wisconsin and Michigan, which later made them all millionaires. He established mills, factories and banks in his home town of Menominee. Elsewhere his financial, manufacturing and commercial investments reached into vast fields. In addition to his vast northern lumber and timber interests he acquired thousands of acres of pine land in Louisiana. In Wisconsin and Michigan he became the owner of great tracts of farm lands, cut-over lands, the cultivation of which is turning the whole northern country to farming and dairying. Near Kenosha, Wis., he has a 900-acre dairy farm which is one of the most famous in the entire country.

Politically Mr. Stephenson began, in 1856, by distributing tickets for Fremont and Dayton, the first national Republican candidates for president and vice president, and has been a Republican ever since. He served in both branches of the Wisconsin legislature, then three terms in congress, retiring voluntarily, and in 1907, succeeded John C. Spooner in the senate, when that gentleman resigned. In 1909 he was elected for the full term. His present term will expire March 4, 1915.

FEW AMERICANS

Several well paid teaching positions in Latin-America open to Americans will probably be filled by men from other countries because of a lack of trained men in the United States with a speaking knowledge of Spanish, according to Mr. L. A. Kalbach, chief clerk of the bureau of education. On several occasions lately, Mr. Kalbach points out, the bureau of education, at the request of the state department, has scoured the country in search of educators for responsible positions in Latin-American countries, only to find generally that those who might qualify in other particulars can not speak the language.

The American minister to Panama recently asked the United States government to recommend candidates for positions as professors of industrial arts, professor of agriculture, and professor of veterinary medicine in Panama. Salaries up to $2,400 and other inducements were offered. The bureau of education communicated with various institutions and organizations that usually have lists of available candidates, but in this case the response was meager, because of the language requirement. "None of our industrial arts experts speak Spanish," wrote an officer of one of the best known training institutions. Others declared that while they knew of men who would meet the requirements, so far as professional attainments and teaching experience were concerned, they knew of none who had the added requirement of Spanish.

Spanish is, of course, taught in many American institutions of learning, but comparatively few students avail themselves of the opportunity to learn it. Sometimes students feel that a high school or college course in Spanish will not furnish the necessary conversational knowledge. This difficulty has long been recognized in all modern language instruction, and in Spanish, particularly, practical control of the language is now insisted upon.

Furthermore, opportunities for practice in speaking Spanish are constantly increasing. Better transportation facilities are making the United States and Latin-American nations more and more accessible to each other. For those who wish to go to Europe, there is the Spanish government "Holiday Course for Foreigners," the second session of which begins at the University of Madrid on June 25. Professor Marion of the United States Naval academy, who attended the school last year, speaks enthusiastically of the opportunities offered in this course to obtain first hand knowledge of the language, literature, customs, etc., of Spain.

It is considered probable that one reason why Americans have been slow to learn a foreign language for use abroad is to be found in the fact that there has been little necessity for seeking positions in other countries. In the teaching profession, particularly, the present supply of well trained workers is by no means adequate for the demand.

EDUCATION NOTES.

London will be the meeting place of the 27th International Congress of Medicine in August.

The eighth exposition of fine arts now going on in Florence, Italy, will continue until October 31st.

More than 90 per cent of the high schools now reporting to the United States bureau of education have full four-year courses.

Of France's 227,000 recruits in 1912, 3.48 per cent were illiterates, and 22.5 per cent had no education beyond the mere ability to read and write.

Wisconsin reports a revival of interest in penmanship. "Writing need not be a lost art," says State Superintendent Cary in recording the efforts of several counties to improve penmanship instruction.

Selected as the most meritorious of 1,100 Porto Rican teachers who took a correspondence course in agriculture at the University of Porto Rico, Jose C. Rosario and have a free trip to New York and Washington in the near future. Mr. Rosario was one of seven whose work was deemed specially noteworthy by the faculty, and he was selected for the prize trip by vote of his fellow teachers.

Typical of the American zeal for attractive and well equipped public high school buildings is the splendid plant of the new Trier county high school at Kenilworth, Ill. A number of notable guests were present at the dedication exercises, including Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education. The auditorium, dining and dance hall, gymnasium, natatorium and shop are all one story in height and have, consequently, it is believed, no draft. The buildings were planned with the idea that they should serve as community centers as well as schools. The school grounds cover 16 acres.

TO AILING WOMEN

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Jacksonville.

No woman should consider herself healthy and well if the kidneys are weak. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are disordered. If the kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen worse troubles may quickly follow. This is often the cause of bearing down pains, lameness, backache, etc. Uric poisoning is also frequent cause of headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that has proven effective in thousands of such cases. Let a Jacksonville woman tell of her experience.

Mrs. Eva Martin, 902 Hackett avenue, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills for several years and I know them to be a good, reliable remedy. When I have a pain in my back and my kidneys do not act regularly, I get Doan's Kidney Pills at Armstrong's Drug Store. They bring me great relief and I have no hesitation in saying so."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WILL DELIVER FOURTH OF JULY ORATION.

Hugh P. Green of the law firm of Worthington, Reeve & Green, has accepted an invitation to deliver a speech at an Independence day celebration at Nashville, Ill. Ex-Congressman Rodenburg of Belleville will also be one of the speakers. Mr. Green was born and raised in Nashville.

It is true that women more frequently suffer from kidney trouble than men. It is also true they suffer more intensely, owing to their more sensitive organism. Katherine L. Norton, New Bedford, Mass., says: "I had a terrible pain across my back with a burning and scalding feeling. I took Foley Kidney Pills as advised, with results certain and sure. The pain and burning feeling left me, I felt toned up and invigorated. I am glad to recommend Foley Kidney Pills." They are tonic in action, quick in results. J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

FOOCHOW PROVES TO HAVE MANY WONDERS

swift place in the river where the current carried everything before it. The boatmen anticipated the trouble and were prepared for it. Two were many feet away on the shore tugging with might and main at the rope, while the third waded along side and pulled and pushed at the pole and the fourth with pole in hand pushed against the bottom for dear life and with the combined efforts of all we stemmed the current and rode in safety into calmer water. It was a wonderful experience and wholly new to us, yet it was the way in which the stream had been navigated for many centuries. When our young friend, Mr. Storrs, goes to his field of labor at Shaowu he has two weeks of that kind of traveling under the most favorable circumstances and when the elements or waters are unpropitious it takes much longer.

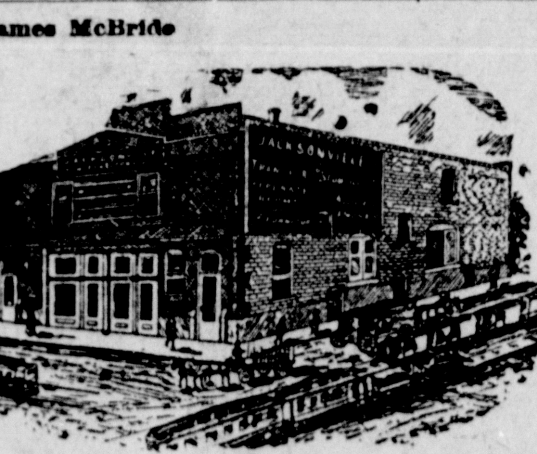

Though my friends had told me I would see some fine scenery I was wholly unprepared for the beauties which awaited us, for had I any idea that China possessed such glories as we witnessed during the entire journey and especially the latter half, which required the greater part of a day. In fact, I suppose we traveled not much more than ten miles the second day of the trip. All the way the most attractive scenes presented themselves and man was conscious generally by his absence, though we were informed there were plenty of the mountains there were plenty of villages and towns. The hills and mountains were green to very summit, while lovely waterfalls, grand gorges and charming ravines varied the spectacle, which was like a mighty kaleidoscope (ever changing).

Occasionally the hills would be terraced almost to the tops and there would be patches cultivated in rice or wheat, which made a pleasing change and so the never ending view was presented and we were lost in admiration and gave up trying to over-press our sentiments and wonder too at something of which we had no idea had an existence in China. Of course comparisons are odious and I shall not make any suffice to say that scenery along the way was enchanting and different from that which I had seen elsewhere.

We reached our destination in the afternoon of the second day and were most cordially received and welcomed.

STATE NEWS.

Family of 13 Tied To Rope—Attention of passengers at the Relay Depot in East St. Louis was attracted recently by a family of thirteen stopped off between trains and strolled through the station, all tied to a long rope.

The head of the family was James K. Thorpe, who with his wife and eleven children, are traveling from Colorado to Canada to take up a homestead. Thorpe explained that in long waits between trains the children often wandered away and became lost. To guard against this he decided to rope them to gather. The children range in age from 1 to 15 years.

In strolling about the Relay Depot platform they arranged themselves in single file, the father at the head and the mother bringing up the rear.

Lamont Made Illinois' Master—Capt. Alex Lamont of Alton, aged 85, the oldest active steamboat master on the Mississippi River, has been appointed master and pilot of the steamer Illinois, recently turned over by the state to the Alton division of Illinois Naval Reserves. An effort is being made to have the Illinois made an auxiliary to the United States Navy, which would exempt her from the regulations governing passenger-carrying boats. The boat can not be used for any purpose but carrying the crew of the Alton division. The division will make its annual cruise on the Illinois this year instead of out of Chicago on a lake steamer. The cruise will begin on July 5. Capt. Lamont will have charge of the boat during the time.

To Study Public Utilities—Mayor R. E. Duval, City Engineer W. C. Wolff, W. A. Twenhofel, representative of the Belleville Commercial Club and George R. Long for the Retail Merchants' Association are making a "study tour" of Northern Illinois cities. Springfield, Peoria, Bloomington, Champaign, Chicago, Aurora and Gary, Ind., will be visited. Parks and public utilities will be studied.

ENGAGEMENT EXTRAORDINARY

Marvelous, Mammoth, Thrilling, Spectacular $200,000 Production, SATAN, or The Drama of Humanity, in 4 Parts, 5 Reels.

Mr. Luman C. Lann, an authoritative speaker on classical subjects, will give a complete explanatory lecture with running of the film. This photo play is taken from three of the world's greatest classics of literature. Each part shows the work of the devil during one of the four periods of history. Part one, Creative Period, from Milton's immortal poem, "Paradise Lost." Part two, During the Life of the Savior, from Klopstock's Messiah. Part Three, Medieval Ages, Invention of Absinthe, Balzac's Tradition of the Dark Ages. Part four, two reels, Satan of Today.

This picture is positively the most stupendous, mammoth, spectacular, scenic, production ever shown in motion pictures. From a photographic stand it is wonderful, elaborate, thrilling, Stage and natural setting most beautiful. More than 2000 in the cast; took over four months of actual time to produce. Cost over $200,000.

One Mile of Film. One Mile of the Devil.

A STRONG REFERENCE.
A young man recently applied for a position with a large printing house, and not having a letter of reference, offered his bank book. It showed a regularity of entries of deposit. It was a very strong recommendation, indicating character and persistency, which finally secured for him a good position.

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

MARKET TENDENCY CONTINUES UPWARD

CONSERVATISM PREVAILED ON BOTH SIDES OF MARKET.

Belief That News Regarding Attitude of Federal Court Toward Union Pacific Dissolution Plans Will Be Received Soon Caused Traders to Hold Off.

(By Associated Press)
New York, June 18.—While there was some irregularity in movements of stocks today, the tendency continued upward. Speculative sentiment remained as cheerful as it has been since the rebound in prices last week and although the demand for stocks was not pressing there was a ready market for such offerings as were made.

Conservatism prevailed on both sides of the market. In spite of the strong tone of the last week, bull operators were not inclined to attempt any ambitious undertakings, in view of the many uncertainties of the present situation. On the other hand traders on the short side impressed by the better tone of the market and the evidences that the heavy liquidation has been completed acted with caution.

In view of these conditions it was regarded as natural that there should be a slowing down in speculation. One of the chief reasons which impelled traders to hold off was the belief that definite news regarding the attitude of the federal court toward Union Pacific's dissolution plans will be received within the next few days.

Various rumors were circulated concerning the Harriman dissolution proceedings and the latest one to the effect that the court would in all probability appoint a receiver for Union Pacific holdings of Southern Pacific was associated with a sharp dip in prices just before the close, which cut down the gains made earlier in the day.

MATRIMONIAL

Carter-Compton.

The marriage of John M. Carter of Springfield and Miss Mildred Compton of Texas City was solemnized Wednesday morning at the parsonage of the Brooklyn M. E. church, Rev. H. S. Alkire officiating. They were attended by Mrs. Lizzie Coe. Both are popular young people in their home towns and the news of their marriage will come as a surprise to their many friends. Immediately after the ceremony they left for the bride's home in Texas City.

Lourie-Stegg.

Herbert M. Lourie of Springfield and Mrs. Helen Ver Stegg were married by Rev. Leonidas H. Davis Wednesday at his home on West College avenue. The groom is a resident of Springfield and his bride of Keokuk. The license return show that both are 53 years of age.

Watt-Eckman.

The marriage of Miss Lois Watt and Dr. J. W. Eckman was solemnized Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, E. E. Watt in Winchester. Rev. Mr. Eckman of Decatur, father of the groom, officiating. A large reception followed the marriage. The bride is one of the best known young women of Winchester and is popular among her many friends. Dr. Eckman has been practicing his profession in Winchester for two years and is accounted one of the rising young physicians of Scott county. The wedding supper was served by Vickery & Merrigan of this city.

LEAVES FOR THE NORTH.

Prof. C. Spruit, with his wife and younger daughter have gone to their summer home in Michigan. Waldo, the son had preceded them. Miss Florence, who spent the past winter teaching in North Carolina went up from Norfolk by steamer to New York and Boston, and thence to Northampton to study at the School for teachers of the Deaf, and will probably join the family in Michigan later in the season. Charles B., the elder son of Prof. Spruit has been studying medicine the past year at Harvard University. He expects to come out and be a part of the family gathering during the summer, after which he will return to his studies in the east.

PHILIP LEE.

Jacksonville lost one of its best citizens when Capt. Philip Lee "re ported Above."

The first time I recall any special talk with him was one day, in the fall of 1873, in Ward's News Depot, north of the postoffice on S. Main street. Captain Lee spoke to me, stating he was a candidate for alderman from the second ward, to fill the unexpired term of Chas. E. Ross, who had resigned, and asked my support. My support was nothing but Mr. Lee was elected at that time.

Next spring, April 1874, he was re-elected, and I was also elected an alderman, and from that time we were more or less intimate, and good friends.

This election was in the days of the women's crusades against liquor; and Captain Lee Abram Moody, Rev. Anderson Jackson and I were elected as prohibition Republicans.

Anyone acquainted with Lee need not be told that he stood by his colors, as he always did when principle was involved. In passing it is to be noted that Mr. Lee was sergeant major of the 101st Illinois volunteers, before becoming a captain.

Captain Lee was a staunch and unswerving Republican, and in the good days when we met in convention assembled at Springfield, it was one of the fine features of the occasion to hear from one to five thousand Republicans joining in the chorus of "Marching Through Georgia," led by Captain Lee in the solo part. It was an inspiration and made for good politics and good government. Philip Lee belonged to that class of sturdy, independent men of time honor and devotion to their high ideals who made the republic a glory before the whole world, and he among the heroes of it all.

During his army service in the winter of '68 and '64, he was among those sent up to Knoxville, Tenn., to relieve Gen. Burnside, whom the rebels had cooped up true. It was a hard, cold march in that mountainous region, and a hurried one. So the soldiers had to sleep in the snow, and Capt. Lee contracted rheumatism, from which I think he never recovered. But he was one of the class too independent to appeal for pension, and he worked on in his business here until an old man.

He was a great Methodist. One of those who help that church to go forward in its grand and militant course.

But the warfare is over, the battle won. "Good friend and true friend! Hall and farewell!"

Ensley Moore.

Jacksonville Lodge No. 579 A. F. & A. M. will hold a stated meeting tonight at 7:30. Visiting brothers welcome. Warren Case, W. M. E. L. Kinney, Sec'y.

LLOYD EVANS WINS GOOSE RACE
The goose race at 3:30 Wednesday in front of Frost & Nolley's shoe store, under their auspices, was won by Lloyd Evans. Clyde Jackson won second place and Roy Kinney third. All three of these boys beat the goose, "Senate," which was not in the best of condition.

The goose belongs to Rod Murcheson, a demonstrator of "Red Goose" shoes and is said to carry heavy insurance against accident. The judges in the race were P. G. Stein and Messrs. Wicha and Crowe. Considerable interest was manifested in the race by the boys of the town especially as the race was delayed by the rain and the suspense of those who were about to enter a speed contest with a trained goose was thereby increased.

RAIN NOT GENERAL.

The refreshing shower which fell Wednesday at 3 o'clock seemed to favor Jacksonville more than the surrounding territory. No rain fell at Lynnville or Franklin and only a trace was seen at Alexander. There was no rainfall in Litterberry. Local showers were reported, however, from Springfield and vicinity.

CAPT. HIT SERIOUSLY ILL.

Capt. H. W. Hitt of South East street, suffered a paralytic stroke at his home Wednesday morning about 1 o'clock and his condition is considered quite serious. Capt. Hitt suffered a similar stroke about six months ago.

MISS ELOISE SMITH WEDS
MR. EWENIRVIN WHITLOCK

Marriage Solemnized at Residence of Bride's Mother, Mrs. Alice Nelms-Smith—Will Take Wedding Trip Through East.

A beautiful home wedding took place Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Alice Nelms-Smith, 138 Park street, when her youngest daughter, Miss Lydia Eloise Smith, became the bride of Mr. Ewen Irvin Whitlock, Rev. J. W. Miller, pastor of Grace Methodist church, officiating.

The entire house was very artistically decorated in green and white. In the living room, where the ceremony was said, there was an embankment of Bermuda lilies, asparagus and ferns, which completely concealed the large mantel. In the sitting room ferns and marguerites were used; in the dining room Rambler roses and vines and in the southeast room where the presents were displayed, the decorations were pink roses.

Preceding the ceremony the following musical program was given by Miss Mabel Goltra: "Melodie"—D. Krug. "Serenade"—Schubert. "To Spring"—Greig. "September"—Charlton.

"Bridal Chorus" of Lohengrin. Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

Following the rendition of "September" the bridal chorus was sung by Miss Catherine Rogerson, Miss Ruth Widenham and Miss Gwendlyn Frances, who entered the sitting room, each carrying a white satin music book, tied with white ribbon. Miss Rogerson and Miss Widenham wore white marquisette gowns trimmed with shadow lace and Miss Frances' dress was white crepe meteor with chiffon over dress.

Following the musicians, came the four little ribbon bearers dressed in white with white ribbons. They were Joyce Lander, Carlton Hook, Mary Louise Baumgartner and Margaret Capps.

The bridesmaid was Miss Ellen Brooks of Petersburg. She wore a gown of white voile trimmed with shadow lace and carried bride's roses. The maid of honor was Miss Maude Smith, a sister of the bride. Her dress was of seafoam green with shadow lace overdress and carried bride's roses. The ring bearer was Ursula Brockhouse, daughter of Judge and Mrs. E. P. Brockhouse. She was dressed in white and aside from the ring, carried a rose.

The bride wore a beautiful creation of white crepe meteor, draped skirt, surplus waist, trimmed with shadow lace with buckles and bands of rhine stone trimmings. She wore a veil and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

The best man was Mr. William L. Ransdell and he and the groom entered from the east room, preceded by the minister. The bridal party took their places in front of the floral embankment where by the use of the ring ceremony the truth was blighted in an impressive manner. Rev. J. W. Miller, officiating.

The guests were received by Mrs. Alice Nelms-Smith, Miss Alice Smith, sister of the bride, and Miss Lydia Hamilton, an aunt of the bride. Mrs. Smith's gown was black lace over white satin; Miss Smith's gown white voile with shadow lace trimmings; Miss Hamilton wore a dress of white Persian lawn. Those who assisted during the evening were Mrs. J. P. Lippincott, Mrs. E. P. Brockhouse, Mrs. George Hollinger, Mrs. M. E. Gilbert, Mrs. Owen P. Thompson and Miss Libbie Hatfield.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Alice Nelms-Smith and has always made Jacksonville her home, where she received her education in the public schools and studied both art and music at the Woman's college. She has been a teacher of piano and voice and one year was supervisor of drawing and music in the Tallula public schools. Mrs. Whitlock is a member of the Fortnightly club and was a member of the Wednesday Musical club, during its life. She is a young woman of many accomplishments, of lovely disposition and possesses a whole circle of true friends. Her membership is with Grace M. E. church.

Mr. Whitlock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isalah Whitlock of Murfreesboro, in which place he was born and reared. He attended school at Dixon, Ill., and later completed a course in the local business college. For six years he has been employed in the Dunlap-Russell bank, and at present is a teller in the institution. He is a member of the First Baptist church. Mr. Whitlock is a young man of splendid character and business ability and is regarded highly by those who know him.

Following the ceremony a wedding collation was served, the green and white idea being carried out in the menu. The wedding presents were many and very beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock left over the Wabash at 1:36 this morning for Springfield and from there they will take the trip to Chicago. Their wedding trip will be through the east, going by the way of the Great Lakes, visiting Buffalo, Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, New York with Atlantic City as their objective point. They will be absent from the city for three weeks and upon their return will be at home to their friends at 1040 West College avenue. Later they expect to go to housekeeping in their own home on Diamond Court.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Isalah Whitlock and daughter, Miss Bertha, and Mrs. Grover Whitlock of Murfreesboro; Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Whitlock of Athensville; Miss Ellen Brooks, Petersburg; Miss Harriet Story, Nortonville; Mrs. Frederick Spencer, Leansport, Ind.; Mrs. Haywood Post of St. Louis; Capt. H. G. Rice of Havana; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Henderson of Litterberry.

The young ladies employed by Montgomery & Deppe held a picnic supper Wednesday evening at Morgan Lake. The dozen picnickers after doing justice to the contents of well-filled lunch baskets enjoyed a social good time until a late hour.

The teachers of the primary department of the State Street Sunday school gave a party to their pupils Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. N. Pires on North Main St. Games were played and supper was served on the lawn. A feature of the occasion was the grind-organ man and his monkey who were entertained especially to furnish entertainment for the children.

BARN MYSTERIOUSLY BURNED

NEAR WHITE HALL
White Hall, June 18.—No clew has as yet been found to the cause of the burning of the barn on the Angeline Robbey farm southwest of this city, Sunday between noon and 1 o'clock. The spontaneous combustion theory is held as tenable as the building contained a lot of straw and hay all well cured. The fire is all the more mysterious because it is not known that any person was on the place after 7:30 Sunday morning.

Besides the hay in the barn a gasoline engine a binder and a wheat drill were lost. Part of the farm machinery was saved. Although the building was a total loss, it was fairly well covered by insurance, carrying a policy for $950. There was no livestock in the barn.

S. W. Niebus of Pittsfield was a Wednesday visitor at Passavant hospital.

The Fire Works Start at 6:30 Tonight.

Holding a Fourth of July celebration would be second in importance to the big Get-together meeting to be pulled off by the Chamber of Commerce in the hall over the Peacock inn tonight at 6:30 sharp.

This kind of a meeting is not often held in Jacksonville, so that the business men should make an extra effort to be on hands. The day perhaps will have been a hot and a busy one, with tired nerves and body it would be much more inviting to take the car home. You will argue yourself in believing that John Jones and all the other fellows will be there and I will never be missed.

HAS PROSPERED WITH

THE YEARS.

Twenty eight years ago Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mosley were married in Kentucky and twenty three years ago they came to this county. The first work Mr. Mosley did here was for Harrison Robinson of the Prentice neighborhood. It was not many years later until he bought a little tract of ground for himself and by industry and careful management he has added to that tract until to day he is the owner of 557 acres of good Morgan county land. Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Mosley were in the city

You will be missed and only an exceptional excuse should keep you away.

Notices have been sent out to all the members of the Association and through the papers a cordial invitation has been given any one interested in some of our municipal problems to arrange to be absent just one meal from home and take lunch with us tonight.

A great many have wanted plates, so that there should be present a very interesting old fashioned toa very representative gathering of our citizens. Remember the opening gun will be fired when we all sit down at our thirty five cent plate.

With their little son, two years and eight months old and took him to the Jacksonville National bank to open up a savings account. By the time the young man is twenty one he will doubtless have a mighty good balance on deposit. Mr. Mosley's record as a Morgan county farmer shows clearly what industry and intelligence can do with Illinois land.

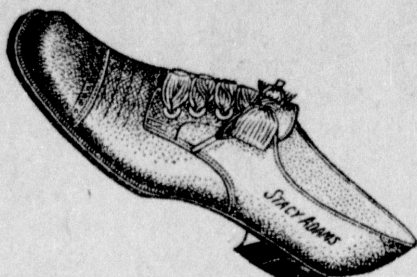

A. J. Hermson, a representative of the firm of John T. Millikin, manufacturing chemists, was transacting business in the city Wednesday.

PEORIA BUSINESS MEN VISIT JACKSONVILLE

Delegation of Over 100 Make Short Stay in City.

Over one hundred business men of Peoria, most of them members of the Peoria Chamber of Commerce, were visitors in Jacksonville Wednesday. They arrived in the city over the Wabash shortly before noon. A line of march was formed headed by a splendid brass band and went to the Dunlap hotel where dinner was eaten. The visitors were met at the station by a number of local members of the Chamber of Commerce and those giving the use of their automobiles were C. H. Ward, T. M. Tomlinson, O. E. Tandy, E. E. Crabtree, H. J. Rodgers, H. K. Snyder, J. G. Reynolds and F. L. Halgrove.

In the absence of President Andrews of the local business men's association, J. J. Reeve spoke a word of greeting and introduced Mayor George W. Davis, who expressed the pleasure it gave the city in having the delegation here. President McDowell of the Peoria association expressed his very great delight in coming to Jacksonville and said the Peorians had a warm spot in their hearts for the city. Secretary Willis Evans of the Peoria organization who spoke here a short time ago was among the guests.

The visitors left over the C. P. & St. L. at 1:20 and intended to visit two or three places enroute home. They traveled in four special coaches.

TO FORM AUTO CLUB

A movement is on foot among the automobile owners and dealers of Jacksonville and Morgan county to organize an automobile club. A special meeting has been called for Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the court house. The field is a broad one for such an organization, and it is very desirable that there be a good attendance.

BURGLAR IN HOUSE.

Thief Discovered in Residence of Harry Hall. An unknown man was found in the residence of Mrs. Harry Hall, who resides on West Walnut street, Wednesday night shortly after midnight. Mr. Hall has been working in Missouri and his wife has been staying alone. When she went to her home she retired as usual and locked her door. At the time mentioned above she heard footsteps about the house and she thinking her husband had come home called his name. There was no response and she called to her brother-in-law, John Hall, who lives near Elmer Day, who was passing, heard her screams and his presence and the woman's cries scared the man away, who went toward the east. It is thought the man had gotten in the house before Mrs. Hall's return. This is the second time the house has been entered in the past two weeks.

GIVING DOMESTIC SCIENCE TALKS.

The cooking school which is being conducted at Taylor's Grocery by Mrs. Mullen illustrating the varied uses for Burnett's extracts and fruit colorings attracted a great many yesterday. Because of the heat of the afternoon and because of the special interest shown a class was in attendance last night.

Mrs. Mullen is not giving simply a demonstration in the ordinary sense of that word. She is demonstrating what can be done with the Burnett's extracts and colorings but she is doing far more than that and is really presenting a brief course in domestic science. The ladies who are attending are finding themselves deeply interested in what they see and hear and enjoy too tasting the very dainty desserts which Mrs. Mullen prepares in their presence. The ladies who attend gather in front of the Taylor store where comfortable chairs await them and where electric fans keep the air cooled. This afternoon members of the Domestic Science round table will be special guests but any lady will be welcome. Mrs. Mullen answers every question asked and takes particular pains to see that each and every lady who comes gets just the attention she desires. These are hot days but the ladies who visit this school of cookery are forgetting all about the heat.

SCOTT'S HIPPODROME TO OPEN TOMORROW

Exhibition of Moving Pictures Will Be First Event in Fine New Open Air Theatre on East Morgan Street—Grand Opening Next Monday and Tuesday.

Thomas Scott's Hippodrome on East Morgan street has been completed and will be opened to the public by a special five reel moving picture performance Friday night. A grand opening has been planned for Monday and Tuesday nights June 23 and 24 at which both high class vaudeville and motion pictures will be shown. The special reel Friday and Saturday nights will be "Satan or the Drama of Humanity" and will be one of the finest films ever shown in Jacksonville. The admission price to this up-to-date outdoor play house will be 10 cents.

The construction of the Hippodrome, which is situated on East Morgan street between East street and the square was begun last February. The building is an imposing one occupying all but a small corner of a 60 by 180 foot lot. The dimensions of the entrance are 24 by 40 feet, being sufficiently commodious to accommodate a large crowd in case of rain. The stage at the south end of the lot is located in a building 53 feet long and 39 feet high, with a depth of 24 feet. Its fitting is up-to-date in every particular, having the best of conveniences for the actors and the most modern arrangement and equipment. A Ventilation scene in oil is artistically represented on the front curtain. The border and front lights are in three colors, red, white and blue. This stage is of larger size than usually found in out of doors theatres and is of sufficient size to accommodate almost any production staged.

The main body of the theatre which has a seating capacity of nine hundred is without a roof. The seats are comfortable opera chairs especially constructed for outdoor use. They are made of rock elm dipped in oil to make them water proof. Five successive layers of clinders beat down and covered by thick crushed rock which will become as hard as concrete form the floor. Many travelling men and men of the profession pronounce Mr. Scott's Hippodrome one of the best open air theatres in the state.

Mr. Scott has given especial attention to the lighting arrangements of the Hippodrome. He has placed a string of strong incandescent lights between the new building and Scott's theatre on the square. The front of the Hippodrome will also be lighted by strong electric bulbs. Scott's Theatre will continue open each afternoon and evening as heretofore. The Hippodrome at which will be shown high class vaudeville as well as motion pictures will be open evenings only. Two shows will be given each night, the first commencing at 7:45, and the second at 9 o'clock. All who pay the admission price of ten cents will be given a coupon which will admit them to Scott's Theatre for five cents making it possible for one to see both big shows in the same evening for 15 cents.
